

Voices of the Evolutionary HEART - April 2016

Voices of the evolutionary Ancient HEART - written by Sean Caulfield - 10th April 2016, 1-Keme/Death = initiates transformation and rebirth

We as a collective consciousness are living in the WAKE OF TRUTH that has come about through the completion of all 9 waves of evolution, this has brought about a Revolution of Universal Consciousness. Hidden in plain sight is a DIVINE consciousness that we see and feel and this is activating dormant codes of DNA from "Within" us, this happens by an understanding that the mind need to surrender to, because our ancient Hearts intelligence trusts the processes we need to transcend our limitations by. When reading this you may not understand everything but do not let this concern you because your Hearts subconscious will get it. As you evolve you are activating parts of yourself that have been asleep since the beginnings of the First Songs that the Creator's intentions dreamed into DIVINE Reality, we are the result of the imagined dreams of our ancestors, and by opening our Heart and surrendering to our truth we are in service to the Divine Plan that is allowing for Earth to be the "Portal of Peace" of Our Sacred Universe.

Rise above that thought "Within" you that wants to go against your Will and hold your Soul captive, consciously feed love to that which supports your life's purpose to prosper in truth unto itself, because in this way you will attract LOVE and inner peace. When we are conveniently ignorant or unconscious we are allowing other programs of an inorganic nature to run us, these are the very programs that are pulling us away from Creations Divine purpose and destroying this world, please be strong "Within" yourself and say no to the unconscious forgetful part of yourselves that lures and pulls us into addictive natures that wants you to do something that is against the principle of your hearts truth and the sacred light it stands for, we realise that we are fooling ourselves and destroying all around us when we give in to our truth that is distorted by the minds trickery. The heart teaches us that the opposite of addiction is humility and selflessness. We need to ask ourselves, what is the Driving Force of our lives? What the ultimate driving force is is the intention of the Source Creator of Great Mystery that creates through us by impulsing us to exist through dualistic experiences that teach us through our lessons... and by this we are in service to be the CONSCIOUSNESS that is needed to master the duality of this 3rd dimension. Being in full service means to be humbly selfless to any sacred cause and trust your Heart over the minds avoidances to want to give. Do not please another at the expense of your hearts truth, in this way you loose parts of yourself and will feel weakened.

Everything that is true to CREATION'S Universal frequency is in tune with the sacred cycles of evolutions Divine Time that can be understood in the study of the sacred Mayan calendar that the Maya Day Keepers held true to from the inception of the knowledge they were gifted through the Universal LIGHT channel they recieved. Creation's Divine resonance manifests the star we are born into that understands the frequency we chose and that chose us. We are needing to be very clear about what our intentions are because they shape everything we become. This is why we must be conscious because our minds intentions must align to our hearts frequency, our hearts frequency connects us to our truth and opens us up to the destiny we chose.

The uprising IN OUR WORLD TODAY is aiding a full Universal Revolutions against unethical practice, it is primarily because we have gone through four 360 Tun cycles from the completion of the 9 Levels on 28 Oct 2011 - you can go to this website for deeper studies www.theuniversalfrequency.com. In fact we have just gone through the 180th half way point of the 360 Day Tun, this brought us into the west direction of introspection from 5th April, a place on the Medicine Wheel of the Grizzly Bear, confrontation and transformations.

It's everywhere, the purest and most sacred Light of Truth and it is emanating from "Within" you and me and everything, we can not hide from it, it is Creators Divine Will working to flow through everything, humanity is the only consciousness that has FREE WILL on Earth, hence by keeping its Heart closed it can try stop the will of Creations Purpose but in so doing it will destroy itself. The will of Creations purpose is complete to 13 divine resonances and this means it has permission to transmute all discords that don't serve life to continue naturally. In this understanding, if we are not true, we are going against that aspect of ourselves that is not true to CREATION'S Universal Will. A certain alignment of Divine Universal Creation is unconditionally allowing for all that is not in tune with Being in Truth unto itself, to be transmuted. And it can be seen why this is being allowed for in the UNDERSTANDINGS of the cycles of DIVINE TIME. The 9th Wave's 18 day cycle is slowly but surely bringing all into RIGHT RELATION. HENCE the deep subconscious is awakening our collective thought patterns to live with a clear conscience and by this we are being compelled to dissolve all that is not true, from within us this is happening by the Will of the Divine Cosmic Dragons of Love and Light that with permission align to the PRIMORDIAL Heart of the Source/Creator that is activating all LIFE to have full recall of its Universal MEMORY. By this all discords are being TRANSMUTED With Love...

We have just completed a 13 Day wave yesterday and today 10th April we start a new 13 day wave called DEATH, in Mayan language it is called Keme, it brings things to transform and rebirth anew, so it will be interesting to see how this processes all the worldly events to evolve from 10 to 22 April 2016 which happens to complete another 9th Wave 18 day cycle that weaves together the last of a 234 days cycle of 13x18 days. We are thus in the 52nd Universal Night phase, held by 18 days of 13-Baatz/Monkey, completes to ascend, fruition, new seeds are given stimulus to be planted and birth a new cycle, the aspect playfully explores and weaves new dreams. We are completing the cycle of the original intention of Cauac/RainStorm that started almost 234 day ago from 2nd Sept 2015, this you might have felt has brought things to wash away egos, purify and activated a renew enthusiasm by a strong energetic feeling, this is also bringing fertility and new evolutionary growth for correcting past discords.

For those who are birthing consciously clear we are becoming masters of deflecting immature un-evolved reflection of ourselves, these are tests to see if we are worthy ambassadors of Universal PEACE. It's as if we are at the same time having to quicken with the pace that Creation is evolving by, this pace is becoming almost too fast for us to handle, yet the Divine's Plan is always in support of itself when in truth, hence we are transmuting & transcending our LIGHT to live with the understandings of full sacred maturity, this unfolds by a continuing acceleration that pulls us into the sacred "Now" centre. We are moving through vortexes that look like worm holes or birth canals, however it is all the processes of giving birth to the ultimate Dreams of the infinite Source/Creator's original PRIMORDIAL intentions, so as for Universal HARMONY & BALANCE to resonate Peace from "Within" all HEARTS. We are meeting our ONE HEART Multidimensional Family of the Universe. This is the essence of the deepest of deep subconsciousness of ourselves that holds the Primordial DREAM of the Cosmic Dragons that are waking up in the WAKE of the 9 Waves completion and commanding that all consciousness be in TRUTH through the understandings of CREATOR'S LAWS. It's as if our new multidimensional alignments to Universal Consciousness, that is all one web of inter connected MEMORY of infinite Time, mirrored as life on Earth, is transcending the densest part of the void of Great Mystery, we are going through portals of truth unto ourselves, and by this experience we are learning what truths are supported by the Source CREATOR'S continued existence as the Cosmic Tree of Life. ALL WE NEED DO IS SURRENDER & ALLOW OUR CREATOR TO LIVE THROUGH OUR OPEN HEART OF 100% TRUTH.

The 9th Wave is a culmination of all the cycles of time having arrived to fruition, so as to become fully self aware through the human potential. This understanding shows us to our deep subconscious becoming conscious of itself and is in resonance to a synchronisation that connects to the Universal Frequency of our HEART. The more we evolve the more we are a-wakening to the wake of the 9th Wave that manifest as the "One Heart Wave". So we can understand that we are living as the Wake of the One Heart Wave from what the 9 levels of creations evolution evolved all by. The wWake is the result of 13 intentions that resonate through each of the 9 levels and from the bottom up, each level condenses by 20 X, the Wake exists in pure sacred truth unto the Creator's Self that was originally intended through our human awareness. The Wake is the culmination of all the Divine Memory of Universal TIME that is mirrored in our HEARTS intelligence.

Besides it being the mid point of this Tun, it is the start, from 5th April, of another 18 day CYCLE. A Night phase that dreams and imagines the new consciousness that is about to arrive in the next 18 day Universal Day phase of the 53rd DAY and at the same time this Night phase we are in now processes the new awareness, hence it is a time to deal with unresolved issues. I am intending flawless LOVE through Expressions that are the mother of all DIVINE ART and this creates SACRED life to unfold in my mirror. We are being stimulated by the impulses of CREATION. All the Infinite Universe is the Source Creator's DREAM. We are the aspects of the Creator's Infinite Dream that holds the original MEMORY. With an open Heart our Memory ignites our PURPOSE and we feel worthy.

Our Memory lives in the Light that we are made of, this is not bound by Space Time, it is not bound by Evolution, it is a Timeless field that connects you to the most ancient future infinite beginnings and infinite ends of the multidimensional Universe of Great Spirit, Being the Source Creator of Great Mystery that exists through you and is Dreaming all of our evolutions polarity and duality to be at one with each other. We have had to move through and transcend this most dense physical reality to reach the understandings that when we surrender to our truth, all separations dissolve, and by this most Divine Universal Understanding we will wilt all ego and live as ONE HEART of a humble Humanity, we will do this by our Mind surrendering to our heart and remembering our original MEMORY "Within" us, and as we hold ourselves true to the Will of the Creators Crystal Seeds that we are and intend to resonate Earth as a PORTAL OF UNIVERSAL PEACE through ourselves, we will feel feelings of indescribable joy. All fear, anxiety and depressions will dissolve. Yet we understand that this does not just happen, we have to lift ourselves up and be willing to claim our truth, we have to sacrifice and work for what we are due.

It is important to BE CLEAR in truth & know your intentions. Everything in your life is attracted to you by the choice you make, hence your life circumstance maps the mirror of your soul, so what you see as your ever changing map of your life gives you the direction you are destined for, through wisdom you learn to trust yourself in how to read your life's map, hence it is important to BE CLEAR & have no doubt with what your intention is because you can then fully trust yourself and be at peace by walking true to yourself with the knowing that you are living in service to the Divine Will of CREATION, by this understanding you are being conscious of how best you want to master your destiny, and by being fully aware you can then trust yourself with what intention you put out. it is a circle that always returns on itself, the San Bushmen are my biggest teachers with showing me myself, through how they treat life with so much trust even though they have suffered at the hands of an immature consciousness, they know that all is an aspect of themselves that will catch up to them as the Creator allows for this, they know they must allow and surrender and not spoil the situation, rather let it see itself for what it is, this is the deepest trust that most Indigenous culture live by. As the ONE HEART Wave of Consciousness we are sometimes not surfing it and rather we are living in its "Lag in Time", this is that part of our collective consciousness that is bound by flawed systems that are held back by material imbalances. This is an immature consciousness that needs to see itself for what it is and then by this, "change" to align itself with the ONE HEART WAVE of truth.

The One Heart Wave is a culmination of the 9th Wave frequency that emanates from "Within" our Light that we are Divinely made of. The ONE HEART WAVE can only fully manifest in truth unto itself when it reached the precipice of TIME being the top of the Pyramid of DIVINE TIME that we have reached in 2011, but in order to be part of this most Divine Wave of love and light we need to surrender to the lower levels that we for the most part where born into, this place is where we lived an immature existence and can still stay stuck in it. So the way to transcend and ascend to high vibrations is to surrender to your truth and most importantly this starts with pure selfless thoughts that are in service to helping the collective consciousness.

The clarity to understand TIME is becoming ever brighter, this is happening as we arrive to be in full truth with the infinite Universal forces of Source/Creator/God. By the Will GODS Divine Cosmic-Forces of Creations evolution, at PRESENT great change is arriving from "Within" us, it may not seem good but it is ultimately changing this world for the better. This is GODS unfolding Divine plan that the Will of wants to flow through us, but our closed Hearts resistance is causing all our problems. By closing out Heart we block our needed healing that will liberate our Soul to live with Wholeness and Oneness, this then stops the prospect for collective Peace.

Although we have gone through all 9 Levels of the Mayan pyramid of Divine Time, everything is still completing to align to a resonance of flawless Universal Truth, this is the truth of Creation that was originally intended. The Cosmic-Forces of Creation are the 9 cycles of Divine Time that can be understood in the study of the 9 Level Pyramid of Divine Creation seen in the understandings of the SACRED Mayan calendar. These unfolding multidimensional frequencies are the shifts of consciousness that we feel resonating through us, they are what we see as the Divinely ordered chaos that is bringing all in our world to live in right relation and peacefulness with itself.

With the build up to the completion of the 9 WAVES of Divine Time to fruition in 2011/12, this brought an exponential acceleration of consciousness that we are all feeling the after effects of, this is the WAKE. Life is very much different to what it was 7 to 10 years ago, our awareness has been drastically stimulated to be hyper sensitive. So the alchemy of Time has brought us to living a "lag in time" which in essence means we are living behind where Divine creation already has reached, so we are catching up with where Divine Creation already is, hence as we arrive to live in the full presence of the Divine Universe, the distance between the lag is getting smaller and smaller and attempting to spin us out of our mind and into our Hearts Timeless Universal Frequency, this brings us to align with the purest and highest Love for Creation, this love is transmuting all that is not in right relation and the disharmony is being amplified because of the resistance to the "CHANGE" that asks that we stay true to ourselves and ground the LIGHT of our most sacred of intentions. We are being asked to be respectful, forgiving, truthful, humble and selfless, because then we are living with the understanding of ONENESS, that knows that nothing is separate, and understands that what you do to life, you do to yourself, this is the new consciousness that we are waking up to. We are being willed to trust ourselves to surrender to Creation that is stimulating all to resonate in right relation with ONENESS, that allows for everything to dream as the One Heart WAVE of CREATION, we could never fully do this until we transcended the pyramid of Time, and only part of consciousness is doing this, only when we reach that critical mass will we as a collective consciousness transcend our limitations and call our collective soul to be whole and by this resonate PEACE. The resistance will cause great confusions.

The 9 primordial Cosmic-Forces are called Bolon Yokte Ku and they are in 100% alignment with and in full service to Creations original intentions that are now living true to the Divine Agreements that are emanating as the completed Pyramid of Divine Time of the Universe. We are now living as the Crystal Seeds of potential for the "All Seeing Eye" that lives at the precipice of TIME, this is where all 9 Waves of evolutions growth have now converged to manifest the One Heart WAVE of truth unto itself, and can see everything for what it is.

Hence the 9th Wave Frequency is the ONE HEART WAVE that emanates from "Within" and understands that it's destiny is in its own hands, it knows it has to gain the strength to reclaim its lost and scattered SOUL.

Although we might not be aware of how this reality exists, the multidimensional frequencies of Divine Time are continually evolving and shifting consciousness to resonate through us, this is the One Heart 9th Wave that manifests what we see as the Divinely ordered chaos that is bringing all in our world to live in right relation with itself, from "Within" us. In this way we are responsible for our DREAMING of the landscapes of our individual and collective consciousness, that ultimately the Creator has designed to live in Harmony and Peace with itself. Hence we are created in the image of the Creator so as to serve the purpose of living as Creation in Human form and we are by this subconsciously intending ourselves to be part of the New Earth that is birthing NOW.

However, people think that all is manifesting randomness that is outside of THEMSELVES, this is what the physical illusion traps us by. By this unconscious understanding we are leading ourselves down a road of despair that will always be caught in its linear never ending merry go round of illusionary of struggle.

The human consciousness needs to wake up to the true reality that understands the most Divine Truth, that we are collectively manifesting everything in our world to be the way it is from "Within" our collective psyche, hence we must wake up and change, so as to take responsibility on a collective LEVEL. This sparks us to understand how important our thoughts are, because this creates the weather patterns of our collective consciousness. We can then predict our own weather by mastering our duality from "Within".

As a collective consciousness we are rising up from the ashes of our flaws, this is the biggest challenge that will manifest the greatest gifts as we understand how to live with New Earth's flawless needs. We are remembering the original Memory that designed us to be flawless. Our inspired self realisation is dreaming our ultimate collective goal that is to live as ONE HEART of Loves flawlessness. Be the Diamond star of Truth that exists from "Within" you. And you will attract this. THIS IS CREATORS LAW.
