

PART 1. of 4. The TIME-WAVES of Creation & Mayan Calendar Astrology, Sept/Oct/Nov 2017, by Sean Caulfield - www.theuniversalfrequency.com, 30 Sept, 6-Seed/Kan

TRANSCENDING DUALITY

This article will not tell you what will happen in the future, rather it will tune you into understandings why things are like they are now and it will tell you to what the Time Waves of the collective consciousness are aligning and how they can be seen as Transcending Duality.

In this 4 part article I share my HEARTS understandings of the TIME WAVES OF CREATION, in particular the NINTH WAVE, and in so doing it is my intention to be in support of allowing humanity to see for itself how to bring itself into right relation with the Divine Will of Creation, thus creating a world of PEACE & LOVE. The Creator of the Divine LIGHT inside you lives by an equation that allows for you to hold a Heart centered Mind and prosper beyond what limits you, and it can be seen to be the NINTH WAVE FREQUENCY that is tuning our Mind into the Heart frequency that knows how to courageously live by the intentions of FLAWLESS LOVE.

In essence the Mayan calendar can be understood to map the memory of UNIVERSAL TIME which in turn aligns all life to the Divine Will of Creations ebbing and flowing Serpent-Like wave movement. Contrary to the idea of randomness this shows that Time is moving ITSELF forward by a coded sequence. The sequencing of the "Weave Together" of time is the key to understanding the blueprint of the original Seed and its growth to maturity, and it is this growth that reflects the evolution of the COSMIC TREE OF LIFE. Because we are "Creation in Human Form", if we apply our consciousness to the understanding of the "Weave Together" we spark an awareness from inside us that allows for a multidimensional outlook of TIME, we can thus live transcended above the mundane of linear TIME, and we gift our Mind an intuitive heart centered ability.

In terms of the sequencing of the numbers that the Mayan calendar reflects, this can be understood in the durations of days in time, and thus reflects not just Mayan time but Universal time. These durations of time are differing expanses of energy, they are etheric unseen but felt

"Waves of Time" that WEAVE TOGETHER in a clockwise and anti-clockwise motion of spinning and spiralling LIGHT frequencies, and it is from "within" us that the Waves of Time manifest life into "BECOMING", from spirit to physical matter the Great Mystery evolves all life to transcend higher and grow wiser.

The two calendars that are responsible for the "Weave Together" of the 9 Level Mayan calendar Pyramid of Creation are the 360 day Tun(clockwise) and the 260 day Tzolkin(anti-clockwise).

Today on the Tzolkin is 30 Sept 2017, 6-Seed/Kan/Lizard, creates flow, sustenance naturally manifests and patience is rewarded. We are traversing the so called 67th 18 day NIGHT phase of the Ninth Wave, meaning we are in the valley and it's an 18 day long time period of going "within", a time of rest before we go to a peaking phase from 15 Oct 2017 when the energy is more amplified, at this point for 18 days new Divine Universal stimulus is fed into the Global Mind of the collective consciousness, complimenting the destiny of humanity to see its flaws and change for the better.

So in terms of the NINTH WAVE, the 18 day valley is a time of rest and reflection, and the potential for healing, and the 18 day peak is a time of amplified awareness and advancement forward. Yet it is like a WAVE FREQUENCY, if you don't consciously tune into it you might not no it exists, and the awareness of this highest of all frequencies holds your thought on a very high vibration that transcends the physical dimension that the 8 lower levels of the Mayan calendar are dualistically gripped by. So because you are Spirit living in a physical body, you are by tuning into this frequency living in service to the "Will of Creation" on the highest of all Universal Levels, you are holding the collective self awareness of Earth to live on a flawless platform of truth. If you are not living honestly it could be said you are not in tune with the Ninth Wave, in fact you are living in detriment to your and Earth's Soul Truth, by this you are bound to a dualistic immaturity that can cause illness to resonate through your body and the Earth's body itself.

Hence, we are all potentially arriving to live by a fully mature consciousness that understands it's true purpose and role on Earth as the Spirit Keepers of the Garden of Eden. We are care takers. Mother Earth has invested in us at her own expense. Instant, consciously self aware manifestations are now a reality, you may be experiencing this.

In this attached photo, which is on the facebook link to this article, the name of this article which I changed slightly, I visualized writing in the sand on the beach, and a wave coming over it, and it manifested how i envisioned it, it could be said that this happened because the Universe responded to my heart centered sincere intent.

As we are gifted this capacity the most important realization is to give back and support that which selflessly gave to us, and by this creating a balance. Are we creating a balance with the extension of ourselves, do we understand that everything is a projection of ourselves, nothing is separate. We are all a manifestation of ONE HEART, what we do has a ripple effect that is more than ever returning on itself.

In terms of the Mayan calendar completion..... AFTER THE END it can be said we are living in the WAKE OF TIME.... Hence, the Waves of TIME are coming to fruition but they also did NOT END, the time waves continue as fully mature PRIMORDIAL Comic-Forces of Creation, pulling and pushing all to live into Right Relation on a NEW EARTH, reflecting from "within" her core the mirror of the Infinite Universe. We are becoming more and more aware on a collective Human level, and living this heart centered consciousness now since 28 Oct 2011 when all the Time Waves reached 13-Ahau/Light.

We are now completing the old world view and the immaturity this holds is being transmuted and dissolved, at the same time the mature Time Waves are beginning, a new fully mature "Seed of Time" is being planted, and will grow a new world view of sustainability and equality

The mature wave resonances are here now and transmuted the old collective emotional wounds of Time. According to the Feathered Serpent - a Mythic Being called Quetzalcoatl who is to the Aztec and Maya the Spirit Keeper of Time - the snakes prison is transmuted the immature ill intent of the past, we are shedding the old skin of Time and by this we are able to "Free our Mind" of all the density that the duality of TIME holds us bound by. The new skin of flawless TIME is growing so as protect and taking over the reins that a Heart centered Mind knows how to hold.

All this unfolding consciousness is a great together mix of mature and immature event that is stirring up things in our World, our job is to rise above this immaturity, the dualistic Mind needs to be surrendered to the Light of truth of its multidimensional higher self.

Creation has always allowed itself to evolve further by supporting itself with New higher Light energy, so as to override the old completed lost density of Time. But the difference now in the past 7 to 8 years since 2011/12 is that for the first time a new 100% fully mature resonance is coming in to the human consciousness - this being the NINTH WAVE - so as to bring our potential to understand its absolute true purpose on Earth. To me this can be understood to be living with a fully mature OPEN HEART, that the San Bushmen hold the understanding of, and also not only the San but other indigenous tribes know how to transcend all that duality limits us by, it is the ancestral ceremony that is key to unlocking the code to bring Peace to Earth.

By the "Open Heart" we learn that the LIGHT of our Mind is all connected as ONE COSMIC MIND that Earth's Global Mind reflects. And when living heart centered, lives true to Creation's Will and allows you to fulfil your role as a PORTAL of Peace and Love.

In this most dense physical 3rd dimension that our body is housed in we hold the Portal to all the infinite dimensions of the multidimensional Universe. If we can reach a level of inner peace that is 100% centered in flawlessness, and we can resonate this like a flawless diamond, then all dimensions of the Infinite Universe will live in harmony and balance. This sounds like a good Universal LIGHT of consciousness to live by and for!

The Time-Waves at present are speaking to us in a certain way and giving us a direction, the direction is opening us up to live in balance, this starts with keeping consciously centered internally, it is important to do internal work for an external balance. With this idea take your mind's eye to a surrounding that speaks beauty to your heart. Visualise a place you have fond memories of, hold yourself here, tune into this Time, feel it in your body.

On 26 Sept 2017 was 2-Ahau/Light and this completed a 360 day Tun round, this also completes a 20 day and a 18 day cycle, we arrive at the East direction to close a medicine wheel cycle of 360 days and complete the so called 10th Day of the Eighth WAVE, so with completion comes a stimulus for the "Seed of Time" to invoke itself by and grow anew, so a new 360 days starts from the East, and moving clockwise every 90 days we arrive at a new direction, to complete 360 days again in Sept 2018. But the question to answer is, what does this all mean, this is what herein this article i am doing my best to reflect in the way i see it, and some of this is comprehended in this article about the 10th Day of the Eighth WAVE - <http://theuniversalfrequency.com/wp-content/uploads/2017/04/Dear-Friends.pdf>

As long as we are gripped by the immature duality of the mind, our answers will lead to separation. This in itself is..... To be continued...

I will be sharing the second part of this article within the next 2 weeks. and in part what will be shared are KEYS TO THE FUTURE...
